

General terms and conditions for association with SAMI

The following terms and conditions apply from 15 October 2025 until further notice between Svenska Artisters och Musikers Intresseorganisation, SAMI, economic association. (SAMI) and the associate.

These General Terms and Conditions, which were adopted in their original wording at the association's annual general meeting on 6 May 2019, replaced all association/membership agreements in force that were entered into before 1 January 2020 and, together with the associated membership form, constitute "the Agreement" between the associate and SAMI.

1. Who can become a SAMI associate

SAMI's statutes state that

1.1 a performing artist (hereafter 'right-holder') who has participated in a recording which is entitled to remuneration according to the Swedish Copyright Act (SFS 1960:729) or equivalent foreign legislation, the collection of which lies within SAMI's operational area, has the right to enter into an association agreement with SAMI.

1.2 Association with SAMI takes place as indicated in paragraph 2.

1.3 SAMI is entitled to refuse association if there are acceptable reasons, such as the fact that SAMI does not represent a certain category of right-holder or if the request for administration lies outside SAMI's administrative commission as formulated at any given time.

2. Association

2.1 In order to be associated with SAMI, the right-holder must fill in the form for association ('the associated member form') and thereupon approve these general terms and conditions.

2.2 Upon association with SAMI, the right-holder must indicate the scope of the administrative mandate. The choices that can be made are provided in SAMI's Statutes and in the associated membership form. A submitted administrative mandate can be expanded or limited in accordance with the statutes as formulated at any given time. SAMI must be notified of any limitation or expansion of the administrative mandate in writing on the form designated for such a purpose. A limitation or expansion applies to all recordings of the associate's performances and can thus not apply to individual recordings.

2.3 When the right-holder has fulfilled what is indicated in paragraphs 2.1 and 2.2 and has received confirmation of association, the right-holder is associated with SAMI ('associated').

2.4 At the time of association, the right-holder receives log-in information for Mina Sidor [MySAMI].

2.5 If the right-holder has not yet reached the age of 18, the guardian's approval is required for association with SAMI.

3. SAMI's administrative mandate and its content

3.1 The associate grants SAMI the power of attorney to carry out the following in his or her behalf:

3.1.1 Enter into agreements regarding compensation for use of recorded performances within the areas of use and for the rights within the scope of SAMI's statutes and the administrative mandate,

3.1.2 Distribute and pay collected amounts in accordance with SAMI's statutes and distribution rules as adopted from time to time,

3.1.3 In its own name and with all courts and other authorities in Sweden and abroad, to bring proceedings, carry on and monitor actions against any party whatsoever for charging amounts within SAMI's area of operation or for instituting legal proceedings against illegal infringement of the rights included in SAMI's mandate,

3.1.4 In its own name, to enter into arbitration agreements, accept and give receipts for funds and documents that are affected by such procedures and adopt conciliation or legal settlement and to present liability claims,

3.1.5 Otherwise, take measures, in its own name or in the name of the associate, with the aim of safeguarding the interests of the associates within the scope of the management mandate granted to SAMI, for example by making declarations of intent, issuing prohibitions, or stipulating conditions regarding certain types of use.

3.2 The administrative commission includes recordings already made at the time of association as well as recordings that may be made in the future after association with SAMI.

3.3 The associate guarantees that the financial rights to his or her performance according to the mandate submitted have not been granted or transferred to another;

However, if the associate has entrusted Svenska Musikerförbundet, Sveriges Yrkesmusikerförbund or Svenska Teaterförbundet with the administration of the associate's performance rights and the mandate coincides with SAMI's administrative mandate, the union's mandate takes precedence with respect to uses other than the uses covered by section 47 of the Copyright Act. More detailed conditions for dealing with overlapping mandates are regulated in a specific agreement between SAMI and the respective union.

3.4 The administrative mandate does not include the associate's intellectual property rights as specified in section 45 of the Swedish Copyright Act with reference to paragraph 3.

3.5 The administrative mandate is international and includes a right for SAMI to also represent the associate in countries other than Sweden, provided that no limitation of territories has been carried out in accordance with paragraph 2.2.

above. This means that SAMI, with binding effect, is entitled to enter into representation agreements with another foreign management organisation regarding the rights included in the administrative mandate and for uses that take place in the other country.

3.6 SAMI undertakes to administer the associate's rights, collectively in the associate's interest in accordance with the administrative mandate received and to report on and pay out collected remuneration on the basis indicated in SAMI's statutes and distribution rules.

4. Membership with voting rights

4.1 A performing artist who fulfils the criteria for membership with voting rights according to SAMI's statutes is able to apply for membership in SAMI. The following criteria must then be fulfilled:

10.2 An associated right-holder may leave SAMI by giving notice of termination of SAMI's administrative mandate (the association agreement) in writing. The notice of termination must be submitted to SAMI and must be signed by the associate in person.

10.3 The notice of termination applies with a notice period of six months from the moment when SAMI received the document giving notice of termination.

10.4 If an associate dies, his or her rights and obligations under this agreement are transferred to the person or persons who, in accordance with an inheritance, division of the joint estate of a husband and wife or last will and testament, is or are entitled to receive the estate left by the deceased person. Nevertheless, the deceased member's right-holders may not join the association as a member in the deceased's place. Nevertheless, the administrative mandate issued applies unchanged until otherwise agreed.

11. Effects of restriction or termination of SAMI's administrative mandate

11.1 Provided that SAMI continues to have access to necessary and updated information for payment, foreign payments attributable to use that took place during a previous administrative mandate but which are paid to SAMI under a representation agreement with another foreign collective management organisation during the period after the termination or limitation entered into force will be paid to the right-holder during a period of up to six months after the payment has been allocated in SAMI's system.
